

WOMAN SOUGHT

"Modern Vampire" to be Arrested in Philadelphia, Police Say
Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—A young woman is expected to be added to the roll of defendants in the North Penn Bank looting.

Detectives say her arrest is forthcoming this week, as are those of several men in connection with the crash of the State's institution at Twenty-ninth and Dauphin streets, last July 18.

The woman is described by the investigators as a "modern vampire," who demanded $1,000 from an official of the bank as the price for silence. The probers declare that the woman was granted her request. The sum, they say, was delivered as a "money sandwich"—a $1,000 bill having been slipped into a loaf of bread.

The identity of the woman was learned while detectives poked into a mass of photographs and letters that had to do with "lobster suppers" and alleged diversions of officials of the bank from "the straight and narrow."

Most of the photographs, which Anthony Comstock or any board of censors never would have O. K'd, have been identified. The pictures and letters were found at the bank.

The woman, in accepting the $1,000, it is alleged, will be charged technically with having benefitted from North Penn funds. It is asserted that the officials showered gifts of money upon her, and that these sums were charged to advertising.

"Gets-It" Peels Your Corns Right Off

Two Drops Will Do It Without Fuss or Trouble. Never Fails.

There's only one way to get rid of a corn, and that is to peel it off as you would a banana skin. There is only one corn remover in all the world that does it that way, and that There's No Corn "Gets-It" Will Not "Get." "Gets-It" is because of this fact that "Gets-It" is today the biggest seller among corn-removers on this planet. It means the end of "corn-fiddling." For hard corns, soft corns, very old corns, young corns, corns between the toes and calluses, it means a quick, certain finish. "Gets-It" is applied in 2 or 3 seconds. All you need is 2 or 3 drops. As easy to do as signing your name. It does away forever with tape, plasters, bandages, knives, corn-cutters, scissors, files and blood-bringing razors. Ease your corn-pains, be corn-free at last.

"Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Alexandria and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by RICHARD GIBSON, FRANK WARFIELD.

FAVOR HOHENZOLLERN RULE

Austrians Ready to Support a Prussian; Hapsburgs Gone

Amsterdam, Sept. 2.—The leaders of the Pan-German League, at a gathering in Berlin Sunday, expressed their desire for a return of the monarchy, according to a dispatch from the German capital.

M. Bozin, a lawyer, of Vienna, declared in his speech that the Hapsburgs had disappeared forever. He asserted that the Austrians desire rule by a Hohenzollern, and said that when a revolution came they would support a true Prussian.

THEATRES

GRAND THEATRE

If you loved a man, would you deliberately compromise yourself that his path might be easy to wed another girl? This is one of the many striking situations faced by Erminie in "The Girl Problem," Corinne Griffith's latest Vitaphone Star Series Release, which will be seen in the Grand Theatre tonight. Erminie (Miss Griffith) does not know the man loves her, and she is ready to sacrifice herself for his happiness. But the other man—he proves "white."

Miss Griffith has one of the strongest and most artistic roles in "The Girl Problem," a role ideally suited to her high society girl type, bringing out her charm and beauty as well as her rare talents as an actress. Also Warren Kerrigan in "For Her Hand."

RICHMOND THEATRE

Love is the greatest thing in the world and in the new William Fox photoplay, "Love is Love," at the Richmond Theatre which will be shown tonight. These two delightful young stars, Albert Ray and Elinor Fair, purpose to prove the wonderful uplifting power of this constructive force. If advance reports of the story hold true, the picture will be well worth a trip to the Richmond Theatre.

Ray and Fair have already made an enviable place for themselves among motion picture theatre goers here and the new picture gives every indication of winning greater favor for them.

INGOMAR THEATRE

In "Johnny Get Your Gun," the new Artercraft picture in which Fred Stone is starred at the Ingomar Theatre tonight, that famous comedian does his danse poetique, a celebrated acrobatic dance that won him the praise of the greatest critics, and then follows it with an extraordinary roping stunt.

With his usual agility Fred finishes the dance, which takes place on a ballroom floor, jumps to a balcony, seizes a rope, and swinging it through an open window, lassoes the Count of Bullen-nia, as the latter is about to leave on an elopement party. It is the most daring piece of acrobatic fun seen here in some time.

PERSHING LEAVES BREST

Sailed on Transport Leviathan Yesterday Afternoon

Brest, Sept. 2.—Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces sailed from here yesterday on the transport Leviathan for the United States. The steamer left port at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Marshal Foch came aboard the transport shortly before she sailed and made a feeling address to the departing American commander.

"In leaving France," said the Marshal, "You leave your dead in our hands. On our soil we will care for them religiously and zealously, as befitting witnesses of the powerful aid you brought us. These dead will bring

A MESSAGE ABOUT ADVERTISING

FROM THE

U. S. Department of Labor

If you are not advertising, then advertise because it saves money for you and it reduces the price to the consumer.

Advertising prevents profiteering. It insures honest profits and makes them permanent.

The message of the U. S. Department of Labor to merchants and manufacturers and to all progressive American business men is to advertise.

Tell the public about your goods. The consumer has plenty of money. He is willing to spend it and we want him to spend it on American-made products. The easiest, quickest, and most economical way in which this can be accomplished is by advertising.

from America many thoughts of remembrance and pious visits and will bind still more strongly our already close union.

"If," concluded the Marshal, "the clouds of war should gather again in the future, would not these dead rise from their tombs and make their voices heard once more by a world which already knows that the same cause, the cause of liberty, has united us since the time of Washington and Lafayette?"

General Pershing replied by bidding farewell to France in the person of the Marshal, "to her gallant soldiers, to her patriotic men and to her noble women."
